

become the kids' section editor!

What an opportunity – edit your own magazine pages! Apply today and you could win a great prize for your school, and start your career now!

how to enter

Fill out the form and mail it to us at 'Kids' Editor', Locked Bag 1000, Artarmon, NSW 1570 or send an email to magazine@burkesbackyard.com.au (title the email 'Kids' Editor').

winners

We'll pick the best applications nationally, then get in contact with you. If you apply by email, we'll also need written permission from your parents before you can start as editor. You will then be editor for one 'term' which will be one issue of 'Burke's Backyard' magazine.

what you'll do

You will be in charge of two pages in the magazine. You can decide what goes on those pages. You'll write the stories (or get other kids to write them for you), you'll take the photos, and approve our page layouts. (All of this is done via email).

what will I write about?

Yourself, your school, your local environment, garden, pets – stuff that's happening in your community and your life. The winning applications will be the ones with the best story ideas included in the applications!

What you'll win

Every editor wins a $500 gift voucher for their school library, as well as a 'Burke's Backyard' prize pack for themselves, including a one-year subscription to 'Burke's Backyard' magazine and our kitchen garden book 'Home Grown'.

job application form – kids' editor

Name: Age:

Address:

Phone:

School:

Email:

What would you put in the magazine if you were editor?
(100 words or less). Why would you be a good editor?
(25 words or less – answer on a separate piece of paper.)

Parent's approval:

NOTE: applicants must be aged between 8 and 15 years. They must have access to email, and a computer (Mac or PC are both OK) with Microsoft Word and Acrobat Reader installed.

